My Dear Honorable Mayor,

Congratulations on your entrance into the political regime.

As for my book; the progress is sure but slow, and I am hoping it will be in print and available for the public by September of this year. At least that is what Prentice-Hall, Inc. Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey, the publisher is planning.

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

E. V. Rickenbacker

With the installation of Cliff Henderson as Honorary Mayor of Palm Desert Saturday, April 15, a flood of fond memories of 20 years ago streams forth

PALM DESERT WAS the Shadow Mountain Club then, with a beautiful palm-fringed boating lake, Cliff's first sand fringed dream, then followed the town.

RANDALL AND CARL HENDERSON, EDITH EDDY WARD, BUNNY WARD were the '49ers along with promoter Cliff, whose dreams have become a reality and made of a sand filled cove, an oasis beloved by Princes and Presidents from all over the world . . . and a garden spot for happy residents who call Palm Desert home, never more to roam.

JUDGE PEARSON HALL will install our Honorary Mayor at an Inaugural Ball, sponsored by the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, here at the club. Wonder if Cliff ever had this dream?

JIM DOTY is Ball Chairman Mary K. Van de Mark (Special Arrangements) . . . Earlene Schildge (Decorations), Edith "Sam" Ostler (Tickets) and Dick Farrer (Publicity).

WORLD RENOWNED VISITORS continue to visit SMCC, many incognito who wish to remain unhearded, such as Anne Eaton, Wife of Cleveland industrialist Cyrus Eaton who was honored at an intimate luncheon given by her aunt Mrs. Delford Fedderman of Santa Ana, at whose Palm Springs winter home she relaxed for two weeks.

GENERAL HUNTER HARRIS visited SMCC and had a fast game of tennis with our Magda before returning to his Hilton Lagoon Apartment in Honolulu

EDITOR MARIAN GANONG who publishes Orange County's social register THE ORANGE BOOK lunched at SMCC with Lido Isle's Helen Coffey . . . Hollywood TV Announcer Art Gilmore and his wife Betty engaged a SMCC Villa for a week-end . . . among others at SMCC were the Robert Gannons of San Clemente, Betty and Burl Watson, of Balboa, Dr. and Mrs. John Wilcox of Santa Ana and Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Andrews of Westwood.

THE RICHARD GLASS Bermuda Dunes home featured on page 3 of Sun

Spots has an interesting wall treatment by interior decorator Walter Duniwant who also has done several of Palm Desert's most attractive shops, including Continental Hairfashions on El Paseo where Friday afternoon "Standings" visit over the tea cups . . . another cozy corner in Palm Desert is Palm Desert Pharmacy where Ed Mullins is always a gracious host . . . OVER AND OUT.

It seems especially fitting that the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce Inaugural Ball is held at the Shadow Mountain Country Club, for the Honorary Mayor of Palm Desert is none other than Clifford W. Henderson, "Father of Palm Desert" and founder-builder of SMCC!

The Happy event will take place on Saturday, April 15th. — Cocktails at 6:30. Dinner at 8:00. Reservations Please!!! Remember, first in have first choice! Mark this one in your engagement books P.D.Q.!

The Sunday Celebrity Brunch has become the "Hit Parade" of the desert; for our members and their guests are not only entertained with the "top ten" in tunes, they are also seeing a parade of the latest sport fashions to arrive on the desert! Among the smart local shops taking part in the weekly informal showings are Nelly's of Puerto Vallarta's Palm Springs Shop; Sandra York, Earlene's, Helen Dettweiler and The Clothes Gallery, all of Palm Desert.

"Dodo" Hurtt, that "Avian Chantec-ler," will arrive in style for his public appearances — Eve Hurtt, his "accompanist," has just been gifted with a sparkling new yellow Cad, a surprise from hubby, John — Madeline and Rudy Richter celebrated their wedding anniversary on February 18th. — Hollis Robert and "Pistol" Peak celebrated their birthdays on February 19th with a gala dinner party in the Manzanita Room.

Speaking of new cars — our own Sun Spots Editor, Ginny Smith, is covering her beat in a new convertible Valentine (a powder blue Mustang) from her ever lovin' spouse. — Happy to report that "Brad" Bradstreet, who has been in the hospital, is now winding up his recovery at home and will be dispensing the Club Cellar "anodynes" shortly. — Lt. Gen. Rana and his bride of forty years who have been on an extended vacation with us, are giving a series of parties for a select few who report that the cuisine of Katmandu, Nepal is the ultimate in epicurean delight.

What a pleasure it was to welcome the charming tennis group from San Carlos Club! Enjoying their sojourn here were Anna and Roger Taylor, Connie and Chuck Phillips, Pat and Bill Page, Billie and Dr. Bill Herrick, Marilyn and Dr. Walt Emery, Agnes and Dr. Vern Perigo, Betty and Tom Atchison, Flo and Dr. Bob Benjamin, Irene and Victor Shaffe, and Claudia and Walt Jellison.

Annual meeting of the SMGC was held March 4 at 9:00 A.M. with President Charles Rowe presiding. Annual reports and election of three directors constituted the agenda.

Directors elected for three year terms were George Browning, Ira Johnson and Frank Wilcox to succeed Charles Rowe, Frank Snyder, and Al Gibson, whose terms had expired. Remaining on the board were Ernest Bromley, Roland J. Baker, Ed Oshier, Roy Williams, Robert Gresham, and Mrs. Stanley Newbrander.

NEWLY ELECTED SMGC OFFICERS 1967-68

ROBERT GRESHAM _____ Pres.
GEORGE BROWNING _____ Vice-Pres.
MRS. S. NEWBRANDER _____ Sec.
IRA JOHNSON _____ Treas.

The Board of Directors meets in regular session on the second Monday of each month.

Golf Club members were saddened to hear of the passing of Cliff Ives March 11 at his winter home on Golf Course Lane. He and his wife Betty, avid golfers, and residents of Bemidji, Minn. have spent the past 20 winters here in Palm Desert. A memorial in his memory is being established at the Palm Desert Community Church.

March 1st marked the 3rd Annual Invitational Tournament of the Shadow Mountain Golf Club Auxiliary. It was a great day — with beautiful weather — a good field — excellent lunch at Shadow Mountain Country Club and pleased and happy guests.

The winners received awards following lunch — presentation by tournament chairman Mrs. Clifford Ives assisted by prize chairman Mrs. Fred Enders to the following:

LOW GROSS PRIZES

Mrs. Wm. Betterly, Apple Valley; and Mrs. Fred Klemp, Thunderbird.

LOW NET PRIZES

Mesdames Earl Neel, (La Quinta), James Mapes, (Bermuda Dunes), John Martino, (Indian Wells), Fred Carlson, (Glendora), Beal Shaw, (Thunderbird), Jack Schmalz, (Shadow Mountain), Edward Ettinger, (Indian Wells), Mel Greenlee (Shadow Mountain), J. K. Koeneman, (Apple Valley), John Stonebraker, (Red Hill), W. J. Bourcier, (Shadow Mountain), Wayne Gustafson, (Canyon), Fred Bellamy, (Shadow Mountain), and Stanley Burroughs, (La Quinta),

LOW GROSS PRIZES

Mrs. Viola Morse, (Canyon), and Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, (Bermuda Dunes) (closest to the pin on #8 green).

Committee members who helped with the Invitational were many, but a few did "specials" — among these — the clever cart signs that Mrs. Jacob Mall made, luncheon arrangements by Virginia Taylor and the important "scoreboard" post headed by Mrs. Charles Rowe; others were: Mesdames W. J. Bourcier, Florence Cowan, Stanley Chambers, Jimmy Swinnerton, James Conly, Guy Warren, Martin Berry, Layton Waterman, Fred Blades, Eugene Gallot, Joe Langdon, Paul Diggle, Gil Cornelius, Don House, J. K. Dunbar, Howard Cuyler, George Reuter, Harold Bromley, George Munns, Hap Ballard, Harry Wall, Stan Moore, Maude Chambers and Miss Jane Richey.

Helping all the women, were all the men who "rustled" bags, attended the score board, ranged and manned the "circle" hole. These were: Frank Snyder, Frank Wilcox, George Browning, George Munns, Roland Baker, Park Hancher, Dick Kendall, Paul Wells, Charles Rowe, Roy Williams, Fred Enders, Bob McComas, Fred Sima, Bob Gresham and Jack Schmalz.

The regular monthly luncheon meeting, Wednesday, March 8th — followed the qualifying round of the Club Championship, and the medalist was Ann Wells.

Winners and runners-up of three flights:

Winner, Mrs. James Drugan (2 straight years); 1st Flight, Mrs. Helen Huntington, who defeated Mrs. J. K. Dunbar. Trophies will be awarded April 20 at SMGC dinner.

Qualifying for "Gates of the Desert" (Handicap) Tournament was held March 22nd, with final matches to be played April 20th when the men will play the finals of their Club Championship (all flights).

Trophies will be awarded at the golf club dinner which will follow the play.

ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION WILL FOLLOW PLAY ON APRIL 26TH. THIS WILL CLOSE THE SCHEDULED SEASON — BUT — THE WOMEN WILL CONTINUE TO PLAY ON WEDNESDAYS IN "POST SEASON" EVENTS.

CALENDAR

- MARCH 22 — Qualifying round for "Gates of the Desert".
 - MARCH 29 — Conclusion of 1st round
 - APRIL 5 — Conclusion of 2nd round
 - APRIL 12 — Conclusion of 3rd round
 - APRIL 20 — Final Matches to be played along with the Men's Club Championship Finals

SHADOW MT. WOMEN'S GOLF ASSN. NEWS

On March 6th we had a gala luncheon with an attendance of around sixty-five. It was our annual Easter Hat Parade — a real turnout and hats ranging from the very beautiful to the funny side. The hat had to be made by the individual — and prizes were awarded to the most beautiful — the funniest and the most original. In that order they were awarded to Avis Hebgen — Norma Shaw and Madeleine Eades. The three judges were Judy Robinson, Eve Hurtt and Irene Fenton, and a difficult time they had indeed, making the decisions.

A HOLE-IN-ONE was celebrated for Jean Hurd who was given a lovely Hole-In-One trophy showing that it was made on Hole No. 2 of the Par 3 Course which is 104 yards; and drinks were served all around.

Also celebrated were the winners of the BETENCLIF TOURNAMENT — beautiful pewter bowls from London, England, seated on walnut stands with proper engraving, were awarded to winner, Agnes Bergquist; runner-up, Marion Stafford; consolation winner, Irma Anderson; and consolation runner-up, Inez Wall. The medalist for this event, Harriet Kettenbach was presented with a beautiful pewter vase on a walnut base.

The Betenclif is our oldest tournament and the permanent trophy was presented to our club by Betty and the late Cliff Ives — many thanks to them for keeping the interest in this tournament going for all these years.

PEPSI SET

With JANE PELGRAM

Nothing was as cool as the tennis scene at the Shadow Mt. Club a couple of weeks ago when about 25 of you Pepsi-setters joined with parents in an intra-club tournament. In one bracket those invincible Chambers, Buzz and son Owen, wound up in first place, tying with Ross Patten and Robert Pelgram (parent Pelgram couldn't compete . . . too busy scorekeeping the tourney for our missing tennis pro, Magda Rurac, who was off winning the Women's Division of the Eisenhower Heart Fund golf go at La Quinta!

In another bracket, Cliff Myll and son Gregory took top honors. The event was marked principally by the big bunch of interaction sportsmanship on tap, friends made, and real class shown as some of the senior-junior duos went down to defeat.

Then, a week later, the lights went out and the SMCC juniors saw the Gold Arrow Summer Camp Program, and don't think "captured in glorious technicolor" is just a crazy cliché . . . zammie! . . . THIS is some film! The Bradstreets, who are turning up a load of groovy doings for you swingers, will get camp hosts to warm up the projector again this spring, so orbit on through for some real eye popping scenes. Bradstreets know all about the camp . . . if interested, ask there.

About that March 11th bash . . . the Humans were back, the price was down, the beat was up. It was strictly rockout, with the most requested favorites "Pickle Fuzz" and "Slow Down" blasting through those amplifiers so EVERYBODY wanted to dance. Sandwiches and punch provided the evening's fare, so dancing was never interrupted. About the first on the floor were Gregg Jarrett and Lisa Hallaway . . . missing was Cody Swane, who leaves a big vacancy at the head of the student body at Lincoln. What Lincoln loses some junior high at his new home, Las Vegas, gains.

Another rockout is scheduled for April 29 at one of your Club's meetingest places . . . the terrace just outside the poolside Bistro! Club members and ALL your school-friend guests are welcome, so get into some with-it clads, grab a gear partner and be THERE. If you're hungry or thirsty after a spinout to the HUMANS big boss beat you can fuel up on hot dogs and soft drinks at the Bistro. The steps around the pool are a good place to sit and watch, and you younger set have discovered that just being there means you're in and gives you a chance to know what's really happening!

And if someone's parents SHOULD stroll out of the Manzanita Room where Don Kimsey's super singing holds the grownup dinner crowd, that upper terrace makes a neat observation post. The dancers can't even see the parents on that deck, unless they look pretty hard, and who does?

So check your Sun Spots calendar for the scam on THAT happening. If you all come and make these monthly dances the groove, your Club will see that they continue through the summer for you! And it's a good chance to get your name next to the HUMANS' scrawls on that big autograph board!

Would you have believed, as the HUMANS beat it out for you that last time, that they were headed for and practically set with four of the biggest, favorite TVers of all? Manager LeRoy Peterson is taking his gear group up for these TV interviews and some record scheduling right now while Sun Spots goes to press, so next time we'll be able to alert you as to what shows and what albums you can get to hear Palm Desert's own group on!

By the way, how many of you got in on some of that grotty skiing just one hour away from Desertville last time the snow fell, just after the dance in March? Tuff and all that.

BALBOA BAY CLUB VISITORS — When Bay Club netters visited our desert shores last month, their young set enjoyed the children's pool . . . Marilyn and John Wilson, Jr. of Corona del Mar with J. Murray, III and Kimberly. Edward Lester Smith photo.

The PARENT-CHILD Round Robin Tennis Tournament drew a record entry list, as 52 players took to the courts on Sunday, March 5, for the annual event. Those without progeny "adopted" a child for the day thus adding to the interest. Teams were divided into two brackets, and in each a total of 10 matches of four games were played.

In one bracket Cliff Myll and son, Gregory, were winners with 28 games, followed by Clyde Hollenbeck and daughter, Lynne. In the third spot was Tom Angle and "adopted" child Ross Burnett, with 20 games, and in fourth place, Merlin Valley and daughter Marilyn. In the other bracket the teams of Stan Chambers, Jr., and son, Owen, CLUB CHAMPS — Charles Gibbs - Jay Paulson team at right defeated Cliff Myll - George Anderson pair in scores of 7-5, 8-6.
